scapegoat: delineating nation state capitalism

edited by David Fortin and Adrian Blackwell
contents

1 Colonial Land-appropriation Founds the Laws and Spaces of Our Nation

18 By These Presents: "Purchasing" Toronto, Ange Loft, Victoria Freeman, and Martha Stiegman

30 The View from Here, Luis Jacob

49 The Puzzle of the Haldimand Tract: 45 Years of Land Claims Research at Six Nations. A Conversation with Phil Monture

2 The Lot is the Basic Unit of Urban Morphology and Architectural Typology

78 An Architectural Theory of the Lot: A Conversation with George Baird

104 From City Lines to Life Paths, Irena Latek

122 Walled Out / Walled Off / Walled In, Beverly A. Sandalack

134 The Zero-sum Violence of the Precarious Property Space: A Conversation with Nicholas Blomley

142 Property Division at Six Nations of the Grand River: A Conversation with Brian Porter

3 Decolonization Multiplies our Relationship with Land

158 Confronting the Immanent Value of the Trans Mountain Pipeline Expansion, D.T. Cochrane and Kanahus Manuel

170 We Belong with the Water, Dani Kastelein-Longlade

186 Beneath the Paving, Sophie Maguire and Eunice Wong

192 Circles and Lines: Michi Saagiig, Bonnie Devine

206 Rita Letendre | Public Art on the Line, Adam Lauder

213 refusing the colonial grammar of čaini'ada: a conversation with luuqigya' patrick reid steward

230 Contributors

cənənəda delineating nation state capitalism, Adrian Blackwell and David Fortin

Scapegoat: Architecture / Landscape / Political Economy

issue 12–13, 2020–21

issn 2561-6544

edited by david fortin and adrian blackwell
designed by jack henrie fisher and jon krohn copyedited by jeffery malecki published by other forms, 2021

Contents

c\a\n\a\a delineating nation state capitalism, Adrian Blackwell and David Fortin

1 Colonial Land-appropriation Founds the Laws and Spaces of Our Nation

18 By These Presents: “Purchasing” Toronto, Ange Loft, Victoria Freeman, and Martha Stiegman

30 The View from Here, Luis Jacob

48 The Puzzle of the Haldimand Tract: 45 Years of Land Claims Research at Six Nations. A Conversation with Phil Monture

2 The Lot is the Basic Unit of Urban Morphology and Architectural Typology

78 An Architectural Theory of the Lot: A Conversation with George Baird

90 Toronto 1788–1978: Real Property, Dispossession and the City, Roberto Damiani and Michael Piper

104 From City Lines to Life Paths, Irena Latek

122 Walled Out / Walled Off / Walled In, Beverly A. Sandalack

134 The Zero-sum Violence of the Precarious Property Space: A Conversation with Nicholas Blomley

142 Property Division at Six Nations of the Grand River: A Conversation with Brian Porter

3 Decolonization Multiplies our Relationship with Land

158 Confronting the Immanent Value of the Trans Mountain Pipeline Expansion, D.T. Cochrane and Kanahus Manuel

170 We Belong with the Water, Dani Kastelein-Longlade

186 Beneath the Paving, Sophie Maguire and Eunice Wong

192 Circles and Lines: Michi Saagiig, Bonnie Devine

206 Rita Letendre | Public Art on the Line, Adam Lauder

213 refusing the colonial grammar of c\a\n\a\a: a conversation with luugigyoo patrick reid stewart

Contributors

We Are the Scourge of the Land, or Property in the Abjuration of Possession.

By These Presents: “Purchasing” Toronto, Ange Loft, Victoria Freeman, and Martha Stiegman

The Zero-sum Violence of the Precarious Property Space: A Conversation with Nicholas Blomley

Walled Out / Walled Off / Walled In, Beverly A. Sandalack

Property Division at Six Nations of the Grand River: A Conversation with Brian Porter

Confronting the Immanent Value of the Trans Mountain Pipeline Expansion, D.T. Cochrane and Kanahus Manuel

We Belong with the Water, Dani Kastelein-Longlade

Beneath the Paving, Sophie Maguire and Eunice Wong

Circles and Lines: Michi Saagiig, Bonnie Devine

Rita Letendre | Public Art on the Line, Adam Lauder

refusing the colonial grammar of c\a\n\a\a: a conversation with luugigyoo patrick reid stewart

Scapegoat: Architecture / Landscape / Political Economy

scapegoatjournal.org

Other Forms

books, spaces, actions

info@otherforms.net

otherforms.net

Amsterdamer Straße 24, 13347 Berlin, DE

52 Lansdowne Avenue, Toronto, Ontario, M6K 2V8, Canada

(issue 12–13, 2020–21)

issn 2561-6544
scapegoat:

delineating nation state capitalism

edited by David Fortin and Adrian Blackwell

architecture, landscape, political economy